

I	THE CHARGE TO THE COMMISSION AND HOW IT HAS GONE ABOUT ITS WORK	14
<hr/>
II	THE STATED AIMS AND MISSION OF THE AGA KHAN UNIVERSITY	16
<hr/>
III	CHANGES IN HIGHER EDUCATION, RESEARCH AND SCHOLARSHIP IN THE DEVELOPING AND MUSLIM WORLDS SINCE 1983	18
	1 The State of Higher Education in Developing Countries in 1983
	2 The State of Research and Scholarship
	3 The State of Higher Education in 1994 and Prospects for the Future
	4 The Present State and Outlook for Research and Scholarship in the Third World
	5 Implications of the State and Prospects of Higher Education and Research for AKU's Future Mission and Character
<hr/>
IV	CHANGES IN THE WORLD AT LARGE AND THEIR IMPLICATIONS FOR AKU	28
	1 Introductory Remarks
	2 Changes and Prospects in Central Asia, East Africa and Pakistan
	3 The Changing State and Meaning of the "Developing World"
	4 Changes in the Muslim World
	5 Globalisation and Multiculturalism
	6 Implications for AKU's Future

V	AKU'S DEVELOPMENT THUS FAR. ITS RELATIONS TO THE REST OF THE AGA KHAN DEVELOPMENT NETWORK AND THE INSTITUTE OF ISMAILI STUDIES	40	VII	CHARACTERISTICS AND COMPONENTS FOR A FUTURE AKU	58
	1 The Aga Khan University at Age Ten			A Introduction
	2 Aga Khan Foundation			B Some Pervasive Characteristics of a Distinguished AKU
	3 Aga Khan Education Services			1 A University on the "Information Superhighways" of the World
	4 Aga Khan Health Services			2 A University Using Superior Educational Techniques
	5 Aga Khan Trust for Culture			3 A University Devoted to Advancing the Status and Professional Opportunities of Women
	6 Aga Khan Fund for Economic Development			C Components for the Future AKU
	7 The Institute of Ismaili Studies			1 The Faculty of Health Sciences: Continuing Emphases and New Elements
	8 Implications for the Future of AKU			2 The Future of IED and Education in AKU
<hr/>				3 An AKU Institute Devoted to Study of Islamic Civilisations
VI	A VISION OF THE FUTURE AKU	50		4 An Institute of Human Development
	1 The Original Vision and Needs for Changes in it			5 An Institute of Economic Growth and Society
	2 AKU as an Institution of Distinction and Quality			6 An Institute of Planning and Management of Human Settlements
	3 Levels and Types of Programmes in the Future AKU			7 A Faculty or College of Arts and Sciences
	4 The International Character and Dispersion of the University			8 Other Fields or Components Considered
	5 AKU as an Open Muslim University Devoted to Free Inquiry			<hr/>
	6 Summary, with Some Warnings of Hazards and Tensions		VIII	STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND FINANCE OF THE FUTURE AKU	96
				1 The Aga Khan University in Transition
				2 The Structure and Governance of the Future AKU
				3 Financial Requirements and Resources for the Future AKU
			IX	CONCLUSION	112