1.0 INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 The Student Code of Conduct and Disciplinary Procedures is devised with the primary objective of ensuring exemplary behaviour and conduct of students which they can achieve by displaying the highest degree of moral and ethical values.

- 1.5 The academic Dean, Vice Provost of Student Affairs and Services, and University Provost are fully empowered and competent to initiate an inquiry and impose any penalty in cases where an offence as per the provisions of this Code and Procedures has been committed by any student, notwithstanding the fact that the said individual may have been exonerated or acquitted by a court of law or competent authority under prevailing laws of the land.
- 1.6 The University expects that the behaviour of its students within and outside the precincts of the University will be in conformity with the highest standards of honesty, ethics, morality and discipline. - 1.8 As a condition of enrolment at the University, each student assumes absolute responsibility to adhere to the Code of Conduct. In cases where there are grounds to suspect a breach or any infringement of the Code of Conduct, disciplinary action under the auspices of the Disciplinary Procedures may, in the absolute discretion of the University (whether on a complaint or otherwise of its own accord), be initiated for such behaviour committed either within or outside the precincts of the University.
