

Rotations and Eligibility

Please note that information and eligibility criteria for elective experience are subject to change. Due to variable nature of elective offerings this office reserves the right to change clerkship assignments at any time.

Placements in Basic Sciences and Community Health Sciences (Research Elective)

- Medical students (any year) may apply
- Students studying in A-Level or Intermediate (pre-medical) may apply

Rotations

- Biological & Biomedical Sciences (Opportunities not available in July and August.)
  - Anatomy
  - Physiology
  - Pharmacology
  - Biochemistry
- Community Health Sciences

Eligibility for Clinical Rotations

Students, who have successfully completed required professional examination, as indicated below, may apply for clinical rotations.

Upon successful completion of second professional examination or six semesters (in MBBS Year IV or V) applications may be submitted for:

- Pathology & Microbiology
  - Clinical Microbiology
  - Molecular Pathology
- Medicine
  - Pulmonology
- Paediatrics
- Family Medicine

Upon Successful completion of third professional examination or eight semesters (in MBBS final year) applications may be submitted for:

- Anaesthesia
- Emergency Medicine
- Medicine
  - General Medicine
  - Cardiology
  - Gastroenterology
  - Infectious Diseases

- Neurology
  - Oncology
- Obstetrics & Gynaecology (females only)
- Physiotherapy
- Psychiatry
- Surgery
  - General Surgery
  - Orthopaedics
  - Otolaryngology
  - Neurosurgery
  - Ophthalmology
  - Urology
  - Cardiothoracic Surgery
  - Paediatric Surgery