Strategic Planning

Standalone Course with Graduate Credits

September 6- December 31 2023 | 3:00 pm to 6:00 pm | Every Wednesday

The Master of Health Policy and Management (MHPM) Programme is pleased to announce the standalone course scheduled from September-December 2023. This course is part of the programme curriculum but can also be taken without enrolling into a degree programme. Course credits can contribute towards a master's degree.

Course Description

Strategic planning is creating a vision of the future and managing progress towards planned outcomes. It is an effective management process that bridges the gap between long-term vision and day-to-day tactical decisions at organization/ program level. Students will be trained in developing vision, mission statements, goals, objectives and articulate a clear planning process by developing logical framework. Furthermore, they will learn skills to undertake situation analysis, priority setting, costing and develop monitoring & evaluation framework for a district or an organization. Throughout the course, particular emphasis will be placed on the importance of strategic planning in an ever-changing environment.

Course credits can contribute towards a master's degree:

Candidates who will achieve a cGPA of 3.5 or above after completing two courses or cGPA of 3.0 or above after completing three courses are exempted from writing the Admission Test. They will be required to appear for an interview. The courses are valid for three years only for entry into the MHPM programme.
